UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

TODD A. DYER,

Defendant.

Case No. 15-CR-115-1-JPS

ORDER

On March 8, 2017, a judgment was entered against Defendant, which sentenced him to 180 months' imprisonment. (Docket #231). The Seventh Circuit affirmed this judgment on August 31, 2018. (Docket #279). While the case was on appeal, Defendant filed a motion for a copy of grand jury transcripts, which the Court denied because Defendant had not explained which transcripts were missing, and there was no evidence that the government failed to fulfill its obligation to provide relevant grand jury materials before trial. (Docket #275). Defendant had previously filed a similar motion in late 2016, which the Court also denied because Defendant did not explain why he needed these additional materials. See (Docket #182 at 8 n.1). On March 25, 2019, Defendant filed another motion for a copy of grand jury transcripts. (Docket #285). On April 29, 2019, he filed a motion for ruling on his motion for a copy of grand jury transcripts. (Docket #286). The government responded to this last motion on May 2, 2019, (Docket #287), which Defendant moved to strike as untimely, (Docket #290). Defendant's motion to strike will be denied, as parties have 21 days after service of a motion to respond. Gen. L.R. 7(b)(c).

Defendant's motions for a copy of the grand jury transcripts will also be denied. The government was obligated to "disclose grand jury materials one day prior to trial." (Docket #148 at 1). On the eve of trial, there was no indication from Defendant's attorneys that the government failed to disclose the relevant grand jury materials. (It is not clear whether these grand jury materials would have necessarily included full transcripts). Defendant now claims that the government had an obligation to provide all of the grand jury transcripts, which it failed to meet. (Docket #285 at 2). Defendant's claim seems to be predicated on his belief that, if multiple grand juries were used to indict, then there might be variations in witness testimony, which entitles him to review all transcripts. See (Docket #180 at 5). As the Court previously stated, this "speculation" is not a compelling enough reason to provide Defendant with all of the transcripts, which are typically afforded a high degree of secrecy absent compelling circumstances. (Docket #182 at 8 n.1); In the Matter of Grand Jury Proceedings, Special September 1986, 942 F.2d 1195, 1198 (7th Cir. 1991). Moreover, in light of Defendant's ongoing witness harassment, (Docket #292), the Court finds that it would be imprudent to divulge any more information about the proceedings than is absolutely necessary.

For similar reasons, the Court will also deny Defendant's motion to produce CJA vouchers. (Docket #293). The Court has discretion to produce the top sheet of the CJA 20 form after appellate review has concluded. Guide to Judiciary Policy § 520.20(a) (2019). However, the Court need not produce the top sheet (or may redact it) to protect, among other things, a person's constitutional rights, the safety of any person, or "any other interest that justice may require." Id. § 520.50. Moreover, documents submitted in support of payment claims "need not be disclosed at any time." Id. §

520.20(b). In light of Defendant's harassment of witnesses (Docket #292), the Court finds that it is in the best interests of the parties' safety and privacy to withhold the top sheet of the CJA 20 form.

Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that Defendant's motion for a copy of grand jury transcripts (Docket #285) be and the same is hereby DENIED;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendant's motion for ruling on his motion for grand jury transcripts (Docket #286) be and the same is hereby DENIED as moot;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendant's motion to strike (Docket #290) be and the same is hereby DENIED; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendant's motion to produce CJA vouchers (Docket #293) be and the same is hereby DENIED.

Dated at Milwaukee, Wisconsin, this 11th day of June, 2019.

BY THE COURT:

J.P. Stadtmueller
U.S. District Judge
